

“Anne Wilson, the powerhouse songstress from Kentucky, hits notes with unmistakable strength and unique country flair.”

- AMERICAN SONGWRITER

ANNE WILSON

REBEL (THE BEGINNING) AVAILABLE 9/29

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Featured as Billboard's Chartbreaker Artist in their 21 Under 21 Issue
- Top 10 Album on All Genre Charts with Billboard, Apple Music & Spotify
- “My Jesus” Is Certified Platinum by the RIAA
- Pandora's New Artist To Watch in 2023
- First Female solo artist debut single to reach #1 on Billboard Christian Airplay Chart
- Partnered on social campaigns with MAPCO, St. Jude and Dunkin Donuts

AWARDS

- 2 Dove Awards, AMA Nomination, Grammy Nomination, 2 K-Love Fan Awards, Billboard Music Awards Finalist

VIDEO

- Watch Anne Wilson and Jordan Davis perform “Buy Dirt” at ACM Honors
- Watch “The Seventh of June” Official Music Video

ABOUT ANNE

With a transcendent vocal, down-to-Earth storytelling and a Heaven-sent desire to glorify Jesus, Anne Wilson is one of Nashville's most inspiring young trailblazers – a Lexington, Ky. native mixing the heart of Contemporary Christian Music, and the sound of Country. Finding her musical mission in the wake of tragedy, Wilson delivered her first public performance at 15 while singing “What a Beautiful Name” at her brother's funeral in a moving expression of faith which soon went viral. Making her Grand Ole Opry debut in 2021, Wilson continues to thrill live audiences, performing 150 shows in 2022 while being named to both the RIAA Class of 2022 and Pandora's Artists to Watch 2023: Christian/Gospel, and also publishing a bestselling book titled My Jesus: From Heartache To Hope last fall. Wilson is looking ahead to a new chapter – one that builds on her vision, and continues to blur the musical divide. “It's the heart of Christian Music, the sound of Country ... and the hope of Jesus,” she says. “I hope it all points back to Him.”

255K FOLLOWERS

566K FOLLOWERS

8.2K FOLLOWERS

467K FOLLOWERS

294K SUBSCRIBERS

